From July 1, 1904 copy of "Journal of Burnett County"

In Wednesday's last as mentioned in last week's Journal were united in marriage Otto Ephraim Peterson and Hulda Albertina Soderquist at the home of the bride. It was a very enjoyable affair. The bride wore a dress of pale blue with cream lace nicely decorated in veil greens and flowers.

Miss Jennie Magnuson was the bride's attendant. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Fornell of Duluth and Miss Caroline Nelson, dressed in white.

Charlie Magnuson and Richard Soderquist attended the groom.

Gust Magnuson played the wedding march.

Rev. C. A. Berg officiated.

Relatives and friends, about 80, were present

relatives and friends, about 60, were present.

Dinner was served in a booth of green erected for the occasion in the spacial [sic] yard. The guests were entertained by good music and singing by those present.

Miss Engh described in a very interesting way Chinese customs regarding wooing and wedding.

The guests began to depart early leaving a nice lot of presents, some very valuable.

At about 6:30 those remaining gathered to praise God for the occasion and to evoke His intercession on the happy couple.

FORNELL, EARL WESLEY (1915?-1969). Earl Wesley Fornell, government professor and author, son of Oscar and Theresa (Larson) Fornell, was born on November 12 in Laketown, Wisconsin; the year of his birth is variously given as 1908, 1911, and 1915. He served in the United States Army Air Force in World War II and attained the rank of warrant officer. He was awarded the Silver Star for bravery in action. He received his B.A. degree in political science from the New School for Social Research at Eugene Lang College in 1948 and his M.A. in political science from the same school in 1949. From 1947 to 1950 he was documents specialist in international law at Columbia University, where he received an additional M.A. degree in political history in 1950. He was head of the government department at Amarillo College from 1950 to 1952 and an instructor in government at Rice University from 1952 to 1956. He received his Ph.D. degree in political history from Rice University in 1956. He joined the government faculty at Lamar State College of Technology (now Lamar University) in Beaumont in 1957 as an assistant professor and advanced to the rank of full professor in 1962. Professor Fornell wrote over twenty articles for professional journals and two major books, The Galveston Era (1961) and The Unhappy Medium (1964). He was a contributor to the Encyclopaedia Britannica and the Handbook of Texas, and shortly before his death he completed a manuscript on the Moodys of Galveston. In 1967 he was chosen a fellow of the Texas State Historical Association. He was also a member of the American Philosophical Society, the Galveston Historical Foundation, the Gulf Coast Historical Society, the American Association of University Professors, and the Foreign Policy Association.

Fornell was married to Martha Steinmetz on September 20, 1947. They resided in New York City before their move to Texas in 1950. Although he lived in Beaumont after 1957, he maintained a close interest in Galveston and Houston through research and writing. Fornell died on March 2, 1969, in Beaumont and was buried at Magnolia Cemetery in that city.
